New York, October 6.—Claims by steel company officials that five mills in the Pittsburgh district heretofore closed, today reopened, featured the opening of the third week of the steel strike which has directly and indirectly affected 500,000 workers. The plants reported to have opened are at Donora and Monessen.

No figures as to the number of men returning to work were available but no claims were made of any serious general defections in the strikers' ranks.

In the Chicago district it also was reported that an attempt would be made to reopen plants today.

In the Youngstown district officials of the Sheet and Tube Company claimed a slight gain in the number of men reporting for work. Other centers reported no material changes.

Gary, Indiana, October 6.—State troops today patrolled the streets leading to steel plants and portions of the city where disorders were liable to develop, four companies having been brought here late last night after rioting was resumed here.

At night hundreds of strikers began to congregate before the gates of the United States Steel Corporation plant and the American Sheet and Tinplate companies. Police and special deputies clashed with the crowd and many bricks and stones were thrown. Finally the situation became so threatening the mayor called for troops.

While the troops were on the way here the police succeeded in dispersing the crowds.

DISASTER FOR BOLSHEVIKI FORCES IN RUSSIA PREDICTED AS GENERAL DENIKEN, SUCCEEDING KOLCHAK, DRIVES ON MOSCOW

Traveling Bolshevik "library" sent into remote corners of Russia by Lenin and General Denikin, new leader of anti-Bolshevik forces.

The fall of Moscow and a direct and overwhelming disaster for the Bolshevik forces are predicted as the climax of the campaign started against the Reds by General Denikin, successor to Admiral Kolchak, as leader of the anti-Bolshevik forces in Russia. This forecast is made by Col. K. Shumsky, formerly of the Russian general staff and a well known military critic in the days before the Russian empire collapsed. Col. Shumsky is now with the Russian information bureau in New York. The Bolsheviks, according to him, lack the strategy to cope with Denikin's military ability and are handicapped by lack of discipline in their own ranks.

President Has Restful Night And is Improving Most Satisfactorily Says The Doctor

Bulletin is Signed by Three Physicians Attending The Chief Executive.

Consultation Held in Early Morning Hours.

By Associated Press

Washington, October 6.—President Wilson continues to improve and passed a satisfactory night, said a bulletin issued at 11 o'clock today and signed by Rear Admiral Grayson, the President's physician, Rear Admiral Stitt, head of the Naval Medical School here, Dr. Ruffin, of this city.

This was the first time Drs. Stitt and Ruffin, who have been assisting Dr. Grayson, have signed the bulletin, which was issued after a consultation between the doctors.

Analyzing the bulletin, Dr. Grayson said there was a slight improvement in the President's condition and that he again insisted in attending to public matters he considered pressing.

The President particularly desired to write a message to the industrial conference today.

Dr. Grayson said he was not yet ready for the President to do any work and would continue to insist upon absolute quiet and keep his mind away from official matters.

With Secretary Lansing presiding the cabinet met at the White House today to consider questions in which one department was consolidated and also to discuss the industrial conference.

Secretary Tumulty announced after the meeting that there was little business in any of the governmental departments requiring the President's attention.

MONSTER CROWD SAW VISITORS BITE THE DUST

Washington Wins a Very Much One-sided Game at Sunnyside Park.

Professionals Take Hand
And Balance of Power
Swings to Washington.

Although the weather man was not in his best mood and rain threatened every minute, the largest crowd that ever saw a ball game in this city was on hand for the 8 to 1 defeat of the Wilmington Clintons at Sunnyside Park Sunday afternoon. Gate receipts showed the total number of persons in the stands and bleachers was somewhere over the 3000 mark.

By two o'clock every seat in the stands had been taken and the bleachers were well filled. When play was called the fans were on the sidelines to the fence on both left and right field and many were perched on the fence.

Washington's lineup was hardly recognizable to the fans and was composed of the best semiprofessionals in the country and three of the fastest players in the American Association. As usual big Bob Bescher was in center. Taggart, of the Columbus Association team delighted the fans in right with some spectacular catches and "Lefty" George, a tall lefthander who is known as the Babe Ruth of the American Association, played a fast game at the initial sack. George is capable of batting .300 while playing first in the Association and then steps in and takes his turn on the hill.

For the first two innings it looked to be a big day for Heironemus. The clever little righthander served them up to the batters with so much stuff on them that the first ten men to face him could only roll the ball weakly along the ground or host puny flies into the infielders hands. Then something went wrong with the Clinton county machinery.

Wilmington scored first on three singles in the second by McCall, Conway and Heironemus. Dowell stocky lefthander, was supreme at all other times and the Clintons were never able to put a score across. It must be said that he was given support which was mainly responsible for the victory.

Bob Bescher won the game for Washington in the fourth when he tripped to right center with two men on base. Noon, the first man up, hit one that caromed off Heironemus' bare hand. It was probably the hardest hit ball that ever went to the pitcher on the local field. Coblenz was safe on an error. The Dowell brothers were out but Bescher slammed one solidly to the fence.

Another queer feature of the game was the home run made by Taggart with two on base in the sixth. It was the first home run that was ever made by hitting the ball inside the lot. Davis in center made a frantic try for the ball but it rolled behind the scoreboard in center. This was the first time that a home run has ever been made by hitting a ball to center field.

Koblenz, shortstop for the locals, stol a put out from Noon in the fifth and then repeated the performance by stealing one from Bescher in the seventh. He went far back of his position and grabbed two flies that the fielders might have caught.

Noon was the sole survivor of the Athletic team but the playing manager was struck by a pitch ball in the sixth forced to retire. Dick Chaffin went to the field and Froehnhofer replaced him at the keystone position.

PITCHING BY ELLER BAFFLES WHITE SOX

Cincinnati Star Pitcher Hold Sox Helpless At All Stages

GLEASON'S MEN OUTPLAYED

Fifth Game Goes to Moran's Crowd As White Sox Hopes Sink.

Eller Establishing Pitching Record When He Fans Six In A Row.

(By Associated Press)

Comiskey Park, Chicago, October 6.—Cincinnati won the fifth game of the world series from the Chicago Americans here today by a score of 5 to 0.

Eller's pitching for the visitors was almost a perfect exhibition of twirling skill. He allowed the American Leaguers three hits scattered into as many innings, retired nine of them by the strike-out route and was himself in the plays in the sixth inning that netted Cincinnati four runs. In this round he got a double and by good base running landed on third.

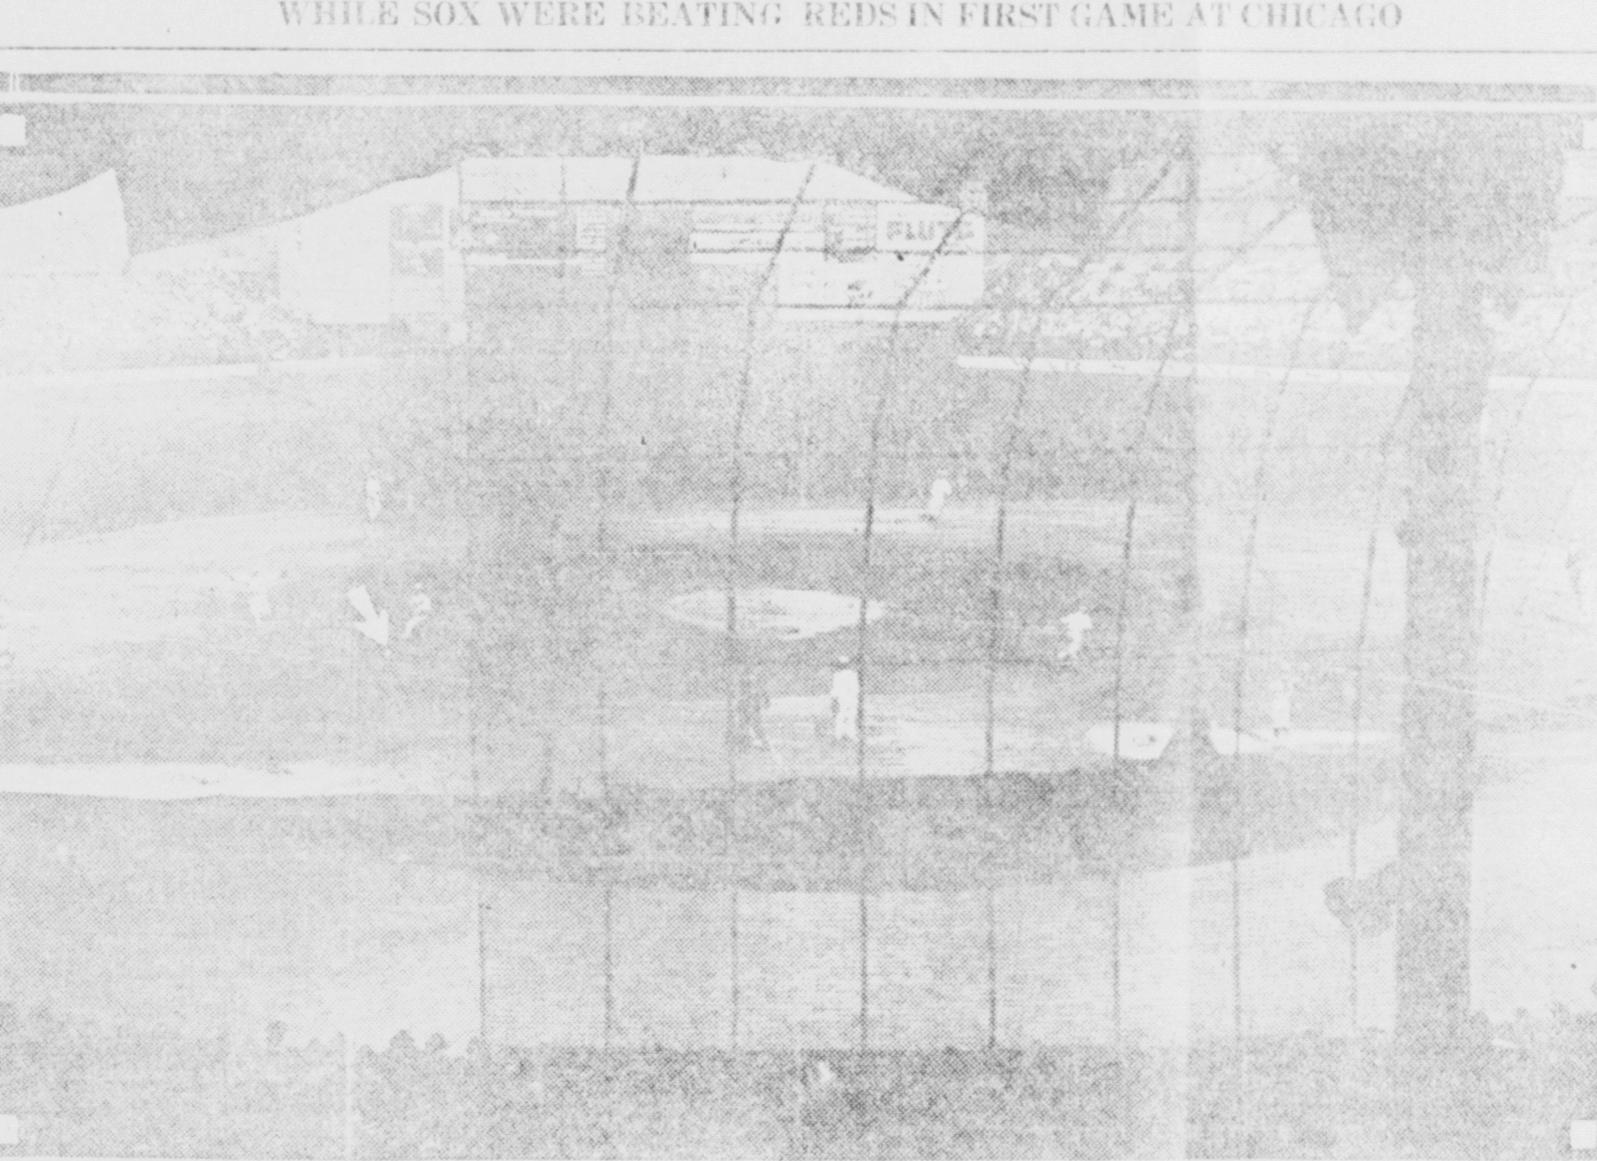

The support accorded him by his teammates was flawless.

On the other hand Williams, while he allowed but four hits was slightly wild, his teammates did not support him as well as the Reds supported Eller, and the visitors succeeded in getting hits off him at an opportune moment.

The series now stands Cincinnati four won and one lost; Chicago one won and four lost.

FIRST INNING.

Jackson played near the left field foul line while Rath was batting. Rath ball working fine, keeping his shots started the game by drawing a pass off Williams. Daubert sacrificed. Schalk throwing him out at first. Gandy took three healthy swings at Rath easily made second on the play. The ball but only connected with the atmosphere. Risberg fanned, going Rath held second. Roush out. Gandy out. Williams, the former going over end. Eller had perfection with his fast hand and trifled the side by striking them out. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Picture taken from grand stand during the first half of the third inning of opening game at Chicago.

was snapped, slipped and fell within a few feet of the ball near the baseline. The arrow points to the hit. Red fans hoped this would start a rally as the White Sox had scored two runs in the second. But their hopes were dashed. Rath died to Risberg and Eddie Collins whipped out Daubert. Pat Moran, the new miracle man of baseball, can be seen coaching at first base. Umpire Quigley is behind the plate. Nallin at first and Pigler at second. Evans, at third, cannot be seen.

Leibold went to third. Luque started to warm up for Cincinnati. Jack catcher made all of the putouts, form. No runs, no hits, no errors. Gandy homered up a high one that Groh Williams struck out. The last strike son popped up a high one that Groh Williams struck out. The last strike being called on him. Leibold fanned, third and Weaver first. Felsch fanned his good work and neither Williams nor Leibold could connect with him. Collins fanned, a second after the photo.

SECOND INNING.

Eller duplicated his feat of the second inning by striking out all three batters in the third. He was pitching a remarkable ball. This is also a record in a world series game for the pitcher to retire the batsmen in two successive innings by striking them out. No runs, no hits, no errors.

FOURTH INNING.

Daubert hoisted an easy one that Felsch had hardly to move to take. Gandy also hoisted to Felsch the latter making an easy catch. Roush hit hard at Williams' first offering but did not connect. He struck at the second ball but failed to hit it. Roush held t on single. Williams ended the inning by striking out. He was Eller's eighth strike out victim. No to hit the ball for a foul. Roush reached first safely when his drive went through Risberg. The latter was charged with an error. Roush stole when he walked to the plate. Eller grounder was hard but Collins hand-second. Schalk allowed the ball to double to left center and took third ed it nicely. Rariden hoisted to Leibold who threw him out at first. Roush gathereid him out at first. Roush gathered to second. Mayer seemed very wild. Lourdermilk began to warm up to the plate being wide. Duncan is credited with a sacrifice fly. Kopf ended the inning by tapping a fly to Felsch. Four runs, three hits, one errors.

FIFTH INNING.

Eller seemed a bit wild but pitched himself out of what appeared to be a bad hole. Duncan fanned, taking a terrific swing and missing his foul strike. Felsch and Jackson were playing over toward the left for Kopf. Schalk backed up and made an easy put out on Kopf's high foul. Neale fanned. Williams had his underhand foul line while Rath was batting. Rath ball working fine, keeping his shots started the game by drawing a pass off Williams. Daubert sacrificed. Schalk throwing him out at first. Gandy took three healthy swings at Rath easily made second on the play. The ball but only connected with the atmosphere. Risberg fanned, going Rath held second. Roush out. Gandy out. Williams, the former going over end. Eller had perfection with his fast hand and trifled the side by striking them out. No runs, no hits, no errors.

THIRD INNING.

The crowd yelled encouragement to the White Sox as Leibold came to bat. Leibold started the Sox half by back of first and beat him to the bag, walking to first. Eller received a big ovation when he with a passed ball. Duncan ended the inning by popping an easy fly the fence. Jackson and Felsch once ed the batter as he left the plate. No Daubert came to the box and tried to steady him. E. Collins out. Kopf captured. Rath popped an easy foul. Eller grabbed Weaver's tap and was wide and almost got away from him. Rariden caught the ball for the put out. Schalk. Rath singled to right scoring Felsch's high foul near the White Sox dugout. Gandy flew out to Roush. It was an easy put out. No runs, no hits, one again moved over to the left for runs, no hits, no errors.

A record for world series play was made in the second inning when the out. Eller was still working in great form. No runs, no hits, no errors.

FIFTH INNING.

Kopf singled to left center. It was a drive that cleared over Eddie Collins' head. Neale attempted to sacrifice but the ball bounced foul. His second attempt likewise resulted in failure. Neale forced Kopf at second. Risberg to Eddie Collins, but Neale arrived safe at first. Neale stealing. Schalk made a beautiful throw to Risberg. The crowd applauded when a fan attempted to catch Rariden's foul in a large megaphone. Rariden fanned to Felsch. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Rath took Gandy's grounder and threw to Daubert putting him out. Rariden out. Eddie Collins fumbled the ball but to Leibold. Roush sent a fast grass cutter to Gandy who threw him out at first. Schalk walloped one and it went to Duncan but it was so fast that it was hard to tell if it was a foul or a ball. Williams ended the inning by striking out. He was Eller's eighth strike out victim. No to hit the ball for a foul. Roush reached first safely when his drive went through Risberg. The latter was charged with an error. Roush stole when he walked to the plate. Eller grounder was hard but Collins hand-second. Schalk allowed the ball to double to left center and took third ed it nicely. Rariden hoisted to Leibold who threw him out at first. Roush gathereid him out at first. Roush gathered to second. Mayer seemed very wild. Lourdermilk began to warm up to the plate being wide. Duncan is credited with a sacrifice fly. Kopf ended the inning by tapping a fly to Felsch. Four runs, three hits, one errors.

SIXTH INNING.

Eller again got a great ovation Neale out. E. Collins to Gandy. The latter taking his slow grounder and throwing to Daubert. Felsch struck Rath going to second. The ball was perfectly laid. Williams had temporary control and walked Groh. Roush sent a high fly that went over Felsch for a three base hit. Struck out—Williams, 3 (Duncan, Neale, Eller); by Eller, 9 (Gandy, Risberg, Schalk, Williams, 2; Leibold, Felsch, E. Collins, Murphy).

Passed Ball—Schalk.

Losing Pitcher—Williams.

Time—One Hour, 45 minutes.

Umpires—Rigler, behind plate; Evans, at first base; Quigley, at second; Nallin, at third.

White Sox at his mercy and was pitching a beautiful game of ball.

EIGHTH INNING.

Rath bunted the first ball pitched but it rolled foul. Rath popped to Jackson, who was waiting for it in short left field. Daubert hoisted to Felsch in short center field. Groh put up a high fly that Felsch took right in back of second base. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Williams seemed to have steadied down and also was pitching well.

Neale came in fast and captured Risberg's fly. Duncan took Lynn's high fly near the foul line. Murphy batted to the plate being wide. Duncan is credited with a sacrifice fly. Kopf ended the inning by tapping a fly to Felsch. Four runs, three hits, one errors.

NINTH INNING.

Mayer went to the pitching mound for Chicago. Eddie Collins fumbled the ball and Roush reached first safely. Duncan walked. Roush trotted to the plate being wide. Mayer seemed very wild. Lourdermilk began to warm up to the plate being wide. Kopf bunted for a sacrifice. Weaver to Gandy. Roush taking third and Duncan going to second. Roush scored on Neale's out.

Rath came in fast and threw out Leibold. E. Collins out. Kopf to Daubert. Weaver tripled to center. Kopf threw out Jackson at first. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Anybody can have high ambitions, but it takes a man of nerve to stick to them.

We Must Get Busy

The commercial supremacy of the world, now within easy grasp of the United States, will be lost to other nations unless American labor soon frees itself from the control of the ultra-radical element and gets to work in earnest.

The only way the United States can obtain the supremacy in world commerce is by producing more—a surplus over home needs—and better goods in every line and the reason the opportunity to secure the world trade supremacy is so evidently within reach is because this nation, to a greater extent than any other nation on earth has the man-power, the money, the organization, the raw material, the manufacturing equipment necessary to rush right at the work and produce at once the quantities and the quality needed for foreign trade.

We cannot, however, supply the foreign demand and secure the trade supremacy unless we get to work, all together, and that soon, too.

The other great producing nations of the world are fast reforming their manufacturing and commercial organizations and will, comparatively soon, be producing more than they need for home consumption.

Germany, of all the European nations, is in the best condition to resume a drive for the world's trade. Her manufacturing equipment has been undisturbed by war, her man-power is settling down again to perfect organization, her inhabitants have gone to work.

Other nations, in dire need of manufactured articles will not abide by the threat of war not to trade with Germany if Germany is the only nation bringing goods to the world market.

It would be humiliating if the greed and ambition of the few radical labor leaders plus the extravagance of the prosperous element, brought about a paralysis of the great working arm of the nation long enough to permit Germany to again seize the mastery of the world's commerce, rivalled only by Great Britain.

The Advice Craze

The propaganda issued by some of the federal and state officials and bureaus, giving advice as to the purchase and care for foodstuffs, all intended—or labelled to that effect—as an aid in the effort to bring about lower prices, is worse than ridiculous to practical men. Much of the advice given would be more likely to result in bringing higher prices and in more waste of food if followed to any extent.

The worst feature in connection with this propaganda is that so many people take it seriously and are inconvenienced and caused to suffer a loss. Another aggravating feature is that it is given a badge of official approval and paid for with the people's money.

It does seem that some way should be devised to check the flow of about nine-tenths of the fool circulars and pamphlets being sent broadcast over the country.

Even some of the educational institutions have entered the field, with talks by "learned" professors and are sending out advice by the yard in multitudinous profusion.

Some Encouragement

Later news of the physical condition of President Wilson is more encouraging. There seems to be, in the statements issued by the attending physicians, a note of confidence indicating that those men who are attending the President have agreed in their diagnosis and on the plan of treatment.

There are yet no promises made as to the ultimate recovery of President Wilson, no attempt made to minimize the seriousness of his condition. The most encouraging report is in the short statement that he is resting easier and seems stronger.

What that means, as to the ultimate outcome, attending physicians and specialists do not undertake to state.

We all know that a breakdown—a collapse of the nervous system—is one of the most serious troubles the medical profession is called upon to combat.

With the weight of responsibility President Wilson is carrying and which he cannot dismiss from his mind, the case is complicated much more than it would be if he had nothing more serious than his own affairs with which to concern himself.

The anxious nation is grateful, however, for the few words of encouragement which actual conditions warrant to be issued from the sick room of the President.

POETRY FOR TODAY

DREAMS

They wait until the little hours,
When all the world swings low,
To drift within my quiet room
in endless ebb and flow;
I often think of them by day,
Whether I will or no.

They call me from my narrow bed,
To lofty vaulted halls,
Where pavements heave beneath my feet

And blocks drop from the walls:
One tiny door—a world away—
I reach, ere the roof falls.

Or else they lead by wandering ways
To lands I do not know—
To lonely plains of ice and fire,
Where dreadful monsters grow,
And shadowy armies march and march
Forever, row on row.

Ah, could I buy my dream tonight,
A love-tryst I would keep
In an old garden far away
Across the ocean deep—
If I could buy my dreams just once
Before I go to sleep.

FARM NOTES

People Buy Apples

To Beat High Prices

The prospect of high prices for apples next winter is causing many people to put their supply in pits, where a suitable cellar is not available. It is suggested that they be placed in barrels sunk in the soil below the frost line in a well drained location.

Ben Davis argues keep the heat through changing temperatures, although the Russet, Cameo, Rome Beauty and York Imperial may be stored in pits. The thin skin of the Grimes Golden, Jonathan and Delicious does not make it advisable to store them in this way.

Since apples decay almost directly in proportion to the heat with which they come in contact, it is advisable that they be stored as soon as picked.

In the fall a light covering of burlap or old carpet may be placed over the barrel. In winter more covering should be applied, and during mid-winter the pit should be well covered with straw.

Prices Make Home Slaughtering Pay

The farmer with one or two steers for sale at $39 a hundred can well afford to butcher a beef according to most butchers at the Ohio State University. With the cheapest cuts of beefing meat retailing from 15 to 20 cents a pound and the better cuts from 25 to 30 cents, the entire carcass is not likely to cost the farmer over 17 cents a pound, with a dressing percentage of 50 per cent. The hide of a steer weighing from 1,100 to 1,200 pounds is worth from $15 to $20 and will pay many times for the cost of slaughtering by a butcher. Many find that they can sell their meat or divide with neighbors.—O. S. U. Bulletin.

The man who finds fault with his neighbor's religion should spend a little time repairing his own.

WHEN A CHILD HAS GROUP

Thousands of mothers says Foley's Honey and TarCompound is the best remedy they know for croup, coughs and colds. It cuts the thick, choking mucus, clears away the phlegm, open air passages and eases hoarseness. The gasping, straining fight for breath gives way to quiet breathing and peaceful sleep. GRAND JURY IS DIRECTED TO BE ON THE LOOKOUT

The October Grand Jury assembled Monday morning to take up the several cases which were to come before them through the usual channels.

In issuing instructions to the jury, Judge Frank G. Carpenter called their attention to the Valentine antitrust law relating to combinations in restraint of trade, and for regulating prises, urging them, if they had reason to think an investigation necessary, to proceed accordingly.

There are counts of no accounts, but as such on no account count the official count.

It's going "dry" with a vengeance when there is also a water famine.

PRICE TO FIGHT FOOD COST

Columbus, Ohio, October 6.—Attorney General John G. Price left for Washington Saturday to attend a meeting of the committee of Attorney Generals Association, which is working in a co-operative way with the Federal authorities in the campaign to bring about a reduction in food prices and to break up illegal combinations in restraint of trade.

BURNS CAUSE TWO DEATHS

Sandusky, Mich., October 6.—Accidental use of gasoline to start a fire in the stove caused an explosion which resulted in the death of Mrs. Ernest Henry and her infant child. The mother was carrying the babe in her arms as she attempted to fight the fire, and the blazing oil ignited the clothing of both.

The bitterness of the times is not sweetened by the prospects of another sugar famine.

WASHINGTON HI EASILY BEATS XENIA GRIDDER

Under a July sun and on a field that choked the players with dust the Washington Highschool football eleven played their second game of the season and at the same time scored the second victory at Xenia Saturday afternoon against the Central High grididers by a count of 13 to 6.

The first quarter opened with Xenia receiving. A snappy forward pass was worked on the Blue and white team before the game had fairly started but only a few yards were gained. Several times the ball changed hands during the first quarter but the score was nothing at the end of the two and one half minutes of the hardest kind of football.

Steward, the stellar end for Washington High, made 10 yards on a forward pass, and Tommy Rodgers, quarterback par excellent, sneaked the ball through the Xenia center for the touchdown from the two yard mark. Weaver kicked goal.

Xenia put the oval across the field for their first and only touchdown in the third quarter but failed to kick goal.

By some good work on the part of Washington's line the ball was worked down the field in the last quarter about four plays. Reif went through the Xenia defense for a long gain and the next play scored for the Washington team with a forward pass Reif to Rodgers. That won the game for Washington and the remainder of the quarter was devoted to holding the score.

A feature of the game was the punting of Reif, the new addition to the Blue and White squad. It was Reimus' first chance on the backfield and the way he performed was a sensation to the many rooters who accompanied the team to the Greene county seat. The score by quarters:

1	2	3	4
Washington High	0	7	0
Xenia High	0	0	6

BIG STRIKE IN ENGLAND IS SETTLED

(By Associated Press)

London, October 5.—With dramatic suddenness in the quiet of the London Sunday afternoon it was announced to a knot of people waiting in Downing Street that the great railway strike, which appeared to have brought the country almost to the brink of revolution, was settled, and that the strikers would resume work as quickly as possible.

The terms of the settlement are in the nature of a compromise. The settlement was the result of a long conference today between a trade union delegation including representatives of the railway men's union and Premier Lloyd George and Andrew Bonar Law in Downing street. Prior to this there was a cabinet meeting.

THERE'S A DIFFERENCE

There are quite a few people who still go on the assumption that gasoline is "just gasoline" and that all of it is very much alike. Nothing could be farther from correct.

In fact there is so much difference in gasoline that in many localities the higher grades sell for much higher prices, but, fortunate for Fayette county folks, the gasoline of the highest test, and the best commercial gasoline to be had anywhere, sells no higher here than the ordinary kind. That's "LIBERTY." When will Y O U be convinced?

A HOSPITAL NOT BOASTED AMONG ADVANCEMENTS

With But One Exception
City Has Kept Pace With
The Rapid Trend of Modern Improvements.

This city has won an enviable reputation wherever the name of Washington Court House is mentioned for its rapid progress with the foremost ideas advocated by the leaders of today. The city is well known for its miles of paved streets. It is known for the number of handsome homes and it is also well advanced in the number of modern business blocks. But it is pointed out by the prominent citizens that the one thing most essential to this growing community is a well equipped and modern hospital.

During the past few years the present hospital—the Fayette Hospital—has performed a well deserving duty. Until lately the hospital has been thought of sufficient capacity to care for the county. It was furnished with the best and most up-to-date equipment procurable at that time. It is yet one of the county's prized possessions but has been left behind in the advances of today; at the present time it is far too small for a community such as the one surrounding this city.

Leaders of the movement and those interested in the plans for the new hospital declare that the county must have the hospital to keep in step with the present order of things. Furthermore, it is claimed that it is conceivable to think of a population of the size of this county and city approving of the hospital as it now stands. It has been outgrown and must be replaced with a new one capable of carrying out the plan of progressiveness adopted by the city and county.

DRY BEGINS HIS OHIO TOUR MONDAY MORNING

Columbus, Oct. 6.—Speaking this morning at Batavia, William Jennings Bryan starts a campaign which will cover practically all of Ohio, entail the making of more than 100 speeches, and terminate with two speeches in Columbus on November 3. With him in his itinerary, which will be made by automobile, is Rev. Dr. Howard H. Russell, Anti-Saloon League founder of Westerville.

Wayne B. Wheeler, Washington general attorney for the league, also may spend a week with the Nebraska orator. It is announced.

Mr. Bryan is being brought into Ohio by the national organization of the league, and is expected to give his entire attention to the state wet and dry issues. It is said that, avoiding comment on the recent decision of the supreme court of Ohio on the ratification referendum issue, he will urge that that issue, for Ohio, be forever settled by the ballot in November.

He is also expected to urge that the Crabbe law enforcement bill be approved and will contend that Ohio laws be not less drastic than the federal enactments. He will argue against repeal of statewide prohibition and the measure giving legality to light beers.

Mr. Bryan, it is said, is expected to emphasize the importance of defeating the wet at every point because of the effect which such a defeat would have on law enforcement and future legislation. Five speeches daily will be made by him.

It is announced that he will rigorously abstain from even the barest comment on other issues.

CHICKEN THIEVES ARE BOUND OVER

Harry Davis and Charles H. Boats young men arrested in this city Saturday morning upon charges of stealing chickens from a family near Jeffersonville and endeavoring to sell them in this city. Saturday afternoon were bound over to the grand jury with bond fixed at $200 each, and placed in the county jail for safe keeping.

Boats, the last of the pair arrested, admitted that they had stolen the chickens and accompanied the police to the scene of the crime. After Boats had admitted the crime and implicated Davis, the young man confessed his part in the proceedings.

It seems that Boats had never been in trouble before, and was drawn into the crime by Davis, according to information given to the police.

The Homemaker's Most Important Event

October 6 to 11

Madam, today the windows of your home form the center of your decorating.

Modern homes have no longer the elaborately sculptured fireplaces or the wonderful ceramic stoves of Northern Europe or the household shrines of the Greeks and Romans to give importance to every sashed decoration.

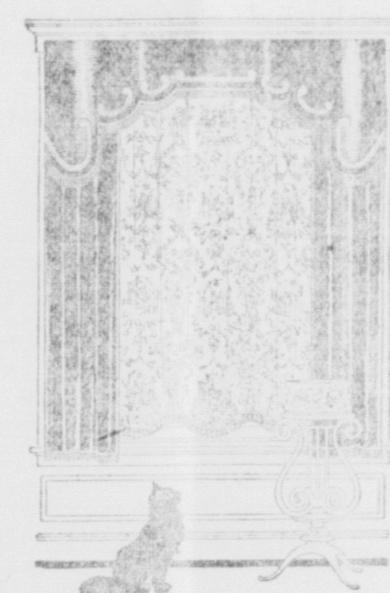

In place of these has developed the modern window—the center of light and air, health and vision—as the dominating point of interest about which all satisfying decoration is built up.

Our Home Craft Week exposition, therefore, centers around the latest means of making your windows attractive.

We are featuring the newest examples of art in window-lace and over-drape materials. Moreover, many ideas as to the best methods for combining those materials at your windows are being shown in our drapery department.

The following is some of the special merchandise you will want to see.

QUAKER SECTIONAL CRAFT LACE

The first essential of a curtain is a pattern of interest and dignity.

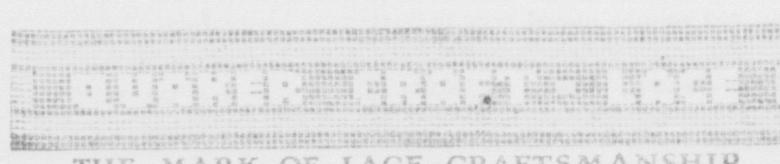

QUAKER AMEREX

It really isn't a fabric—but a fairy's breath—frozen into permanence by the hand of an expert weaver and bordered with florals of frost crystals which do not melt. And yet, in spite of this elusive charm, it's very durable and very serviceable.

During Home Craft Week we will also feature Rugs, and Linoleums. You will find this an opportune time to buy.

PROTEST AGAINST TRADERS ON MAIN

protests against the use of Main street, near the court house, for "trade alleys" on stock sales days, are on the increase, and it is expected that this will speedily result in "trade alleys" being changed to some other less prominent spot in the city.

It is stated that a great many horses of a very inferior type are paraded up and down the street most of stock sales day, and the congestion also is very annoying.
